TEN THOUSAND YEARS OF INEQUALITY
The Archaeology of Wealth Differences
Edited by Timothy A. Kohler & Michael E. Smith
Mar 2019 352pp, 49 b&w illustrations
9/80/16539444 Paperback £42.95 / €48.00
Amerind Studies in Archaeology

Presents the first set of consistent quantitative measurements of ancient wealth inequality. The authors are archaeologists who have adapted the Gini index, a statistical measure of wealth distribution often used by economists to measure contemporary inequality, and applied it to house-size distributions over time and around the world.

COSA
The Roman and Greek Amphoras
Elizabeth Lyding Will & Kathleen Warner Slane
Feb 2019 777pp
9/80/42131433 Hardback £76.50 / €87.00
Supplements to The Memoirs Of The American Academy In Rome

Presents the work of Elizabeth Lyding Will on the important group of transport amphoras found at Cosa. This town has been widely recognised as a prototypical colony of the later Republic and a source for trade with Gaul and Spain, so this publication of its finds has important implications for archaeologists and historians of the ancient world.

THE DAVIS RANCH SITE

A Kayenta Immigrant Enclave in Southeastern Arizona

Rex E. Gerald

Edited by Patrick D. Lyons

May 2019 760pp, 272 colour illustrations, 158 tables
9780816538546 Hardback £84.95 / €96.00

Amerind Studies in Archaeology

The results of Rex Gerald’s excavations and Archaeology Southwest’s San Pedro Preservation Project (1990–2001) indicate that the people of the Davis Ranch Site were part of a network of dispersed immigrant enclaves responsible for the origin and spread of Roosevelt Red Ware pottery, the key material marker of the Salado phenomenon.

HOMOL’OVI

An Ancient Hopi Settlement Cluster

E. Charles Adams

Apr 2019 304pp
9780816540105 Paperback £37.50 / €42.00

A rich work of synthesis and interpretation that will be important for anyone with an interest in Southwest archaeology, Arizona history, or Hopi culture. By considering the settlement trajectory of an entire cluster of sites, it will also prove valuable to archaeologists worldwide.

PAINTING THE SKIN

Pigments on Bodies and Codices in Pre-Columbian Mesoamerica

Edited by Élodie Dupey García & María Luisa Vázquez de Agredos Pascual

Apr 2019 384pp, 81 b&w illustrations, 2 16-page colour inserts
9780816538447 Hardback £79.95 / €90.00

Brings together exciting research on painted skins - human, animal, and vegetal - in Mesoamerica. Contributors explore the materiality, uses, and cultural meanings of the colours applied on a multitude of skins, including bodies, codices made of hide and vegetal paper, and even building ‘skins’.

REFRAMING THE NORTHERN RIO GRANDE PUEBLO ECONOMY

Edited by Scott Ortman

May 2019 176pp, 37 b&w illustrations
9780816539314 Paperback £21.50 / €24.00

Anthropological Papers, Vol. 80

Argues that ideas from economics and complexity science, when suitably adapted, provide a compelling approach to the archaeological record. Contributors consider what we can learn about socioeconomic development through archaeology and explore how Pueblo culture and institutions supported improvements in the material conditions of life over time.

THE ARCHAEOLOGY OF AMERICAN MINING
Paul J. White
Aug 2019 216pp
9780813068046 Paperback £23.50 / €27.00
The American Experience in Archaeological Perspective
Synthesizing fifty years of research on American mining sites that date from colonial times to the present, Paul White provides an ideal overview of the field for both students and professionals.

ANDEAN ONTOLOGIES
New Archaeological Perspectives
Edited by María Cecilia Lozada & Henry Tantaleán
Jul 2019 400pp, 65 b&w illustrations, 7 tables
9780813056371 Hardback £117.00 / €132.00
Offers a fascinating interdisciplinary investigation of how ancient Andean people understood their world and the nature of being. Exploring pre-Hispanic ideas of time, space, and the human body, these essays highlight a range of beliefs across the region’s different cultures, emphasising the relational aspects of identity in Andean worldviews.

THE ARCHAEOLOGY AND HISTORICAL ECOLOGY OF SMALL SCALE ECONOMIES
Edited by Victor D. Thompson & James C. Waggoner Jr.
Jan 2019 246pp, 46 b&w illustrations, 15 tables
9780813064154 Paperback £21.50 / €24.00
Most research into humans’ impact on the environment has focused on large-scale societies; a corollary assumption has been that small scale economies are sustainable and in harmony with nature. The contributors to this volume challenge this notion, revealing how such communities shaped their environment - not always in a positive way.

AN ARCHAEOLOGY OF ABUNDANCE
Re-evaluating the Marginality of California’s Islands
Edited by Kristina M. Gill, Mikael Fauvelle & Jon M. Earlandson
Nov 2018 320pp
9780813056166 Hardback £106.00 / €120.00
Society and Ecology in Island and Coastal Archaeology
The Alta and Baja California islands changed dramatically in the centuries after Spanish colonists arrived. Modern scientists have assumed the islands were sparse before European contact, but this book reassesses this belief, analysing new lines of evidence showing that the California Islands were rich in resources important to human populations.

THE ARCHAEOLOGY OF CITIZENSHIP
Stacey Lynn Camp
Jan 2019 194pp, 19 b&w photos
9780813064192 Paperback £23.50 / €27.00
The American Experience in Archaeological Perspective
While the subject of citizenship has often been examined from a sociological, historical, or legal perspective, historical archaeologists have yet to fully explore the material aspects of these social boundaries. The Archaeology of Citizenship uses the material record to explore what it means to be an American.

THE ARCHAEOLOGY OF CLANDESTINE ACTIVITIES
Rebecca Yamin & Donna J. Seifert

CAHOKIA IN CONTEXT
Hegemony and Diaspora
Edited by Charles H. McNutt & Ryan Parish
Sep 2019 448pp, 132 b&w illustrations
9781683400820 Hardback £106.00 / €120.00
Florida Museum of Natural History: Ripley P. Bullen Series
This close look at Cahokia’s influence offers new insights into the movement of people and ideas in prehistoric America and demonstrates that the city’s cultural developments during its heyday, and the impact of its demise, produced profound and lasting effects on many regional cultures.

CAPTAIN KIDD’S LOST SHIP
The Wreck of the Quedagh Merchant
Frederick H. Hanselmann
Aug 2019 224pp, 45 b&w illustrations
9780813056227 Hardback £89.95 / €102.00
Captain Kidd’s shipwreck reveals insights into life aboard a pirate ship, as well as the forces of world-scale economies in the 17th century. Frederick Hanselmann deconstructs the tales of the nefarious captain, and what emerges is the story of an adventurer and privateer contextualized by issues of economics, politics, empire, and ambition.
THE CUMBERLAND RIVER ARCHAIC OF MIDDLE TENNESSEE
Edited by Tanya M. Peres & Aaron Deter-Wolf
Nov 2018 256pp
9781683400837 Hardback £96.50 / €108.00
Florida Museum of Natural History: Ripley P. Bullen Series
Very little research has been published on the Archaic period shell mounds in the Middle Cumberland River Valley. Demonstrating that nearly forty such sites exist, this volume presents the results of recent surveys, excavations, and laboratory work as well as fresh examinations of past investigations that have been difficult for scholars to access.

DISEASE AND DISCRIMINATION
Poverty and Pestilence in Colonial Atlantic America
Dale L. Hutchinson
Jan 2019 304pp, 5 tables, 7 maps, 29 b&w illustrations
9780813064345 Paperback £26.95 / €30.00
Disease and discrimination are processes linked to class in the early American colonies. Dale Hutchinson argues that most colonists, slaves, servants, and nearby Native Americans suffered health risks due to their lower economic and social status. He posits that poverty and living conditions, more than microbes, were at the root of epidemics.

EARLY AND MIDDLE WOODLAND LANDSCAPES OF THE SOUTHEAST
Edited by Alice P. Wright & Edward R. Henry
Aug 2019 336pp
9780813064468 Paperback £31.95 / €36.00
Florida Museum of Natural History: Ripley P. Bullen Series
Presents fourteen in-depth case studies that incorporate empirical data with theoretical concepts such as ritual, aggregation, and place-making, highlighting the variability and common themes in the relationships between people, landscapes, and the built environment that characterize this period of North American native life in the Southeast.

FORT ST. JOSEPH REVEALED
The Historical Archaeology of a Fur Trading Post
Edited by Michael S. Nassaney

CHACO’S NORTHERN PRODIGIES
Salmon, Aztec, and the Ascendancy of the Middle San Juan Region after AD 1100
Paul F. Reed
May 2019 456pp
9781607816683 Paperback £42.95 / €48.00
Work by two groups of contributors resulted in this synthetic volume, which interprets thirty-five years of research at Salmon Ruins. Chaco’s Northern Prodigies also puts recent work at Salmon Ruins in the context of Middle San Juan archaeological research. It is a timely synopsis of the archaeology of this region of the Southwest.

The contributors to this volume are members of the Hellenistic Sardis Project, a research collaboration between long-standing expedition members and scholars keenly interested in the site. These new discussions on the pre-Roman history of Sardis restore the city in the scholarship of the Hellenistic East.

November 1917. American troops were poorly trained, deficient in military equipment and doctrine, not remotely ready for armed conflict on a large scale - and on the Western front. The story of what happened next - the American Expeditionary Force's trial by fire on the battlefields of France - is told in full for the first time in this book.

From 1942 to 1945, a small, influential group of media figures willingly volunteered their services to form the Writers' War Board (WWB). The WWB received federal money while retaining its status as a private organisation. Thomas Howell argues that this unique position has caused its history to fall between the cracks, since it was not recognised as an official part of the government’s war effort.

Mass suicides occurred during World War II when the Americans invaded and captured the Japanese-controlled islands of Saipan and Tinian in 1944. Historical scholarship on this topic is almost non-existent. This book provides readers with a better understanding of what happened on the two islands and why.

During World War I over 63,000 American soldiers received treatment for wounds or disease at the US Army Bazoilles Hospital Center. This book describes daily life and medical care at the hospital providing the reader with a vivid picture of what conditions were like for both patients and medical personnel.

The Logic and Limits of Force and Innovation in the U.S. Army
Peter Campbell
Apr 2019 376pp
9780826221841 Hardback
£53.50 / €60.00

American Military Experience
Advances a unique argument centring on military realism to explain the evolution of Army doctrinal thinking from 1960 to 2008. Peter Campbell demonstrates that decision makers have found themselves adapting to the geopolitical realities of preparing for and fighting so-called ‘low intensity’ conflicts, particularly in the twenty-first century.

Battle of Midway
America’s Decisive Strike in the Pacific in WWII
John Grehan
Nov 2019 176pp, 150 b&w illustrations
9781526758347 Paperback
£28.95 / €33.00

Images of War
Recounts the events of the Battle of Midway - which, unquestionably, marked the turning point in the war against Japan. The four-day battle resulted in the loss of four Japanese aircraft carriers, the US Navy losing only one. The Japanese were never able to recover from these losses, and it was the Americans who were able to take control of the Pacific.

In this collection of essays, some of the most esteemed historians of the US Civil War select a single meaningful place related to war and narrate its significance. Paired with a contemporary photograph commissioned specifically for this book, each essay offers an unusual and accessible glimpse into how historians think about their subjects.

CONQUERED
Why the Army of Tennessee Failed
Larry J. Daniel
Apr 2019 456pp, 19 illustrations
9781469649504 Hardback £37.50 / €42.00
Civil War America
Operating in the vast and varied trans-Appalachian west, the Army of Tennessee was crucially important to the military fate of the Confederacy. But it won few major battles and many regard its inability to halt steady Union advances as a matter of failed leadership. Military historian Larry Daniel here offers a far richer interpretation.
FRANCE AND THE AMERICAN CIVIL WAR
A Diplomatic History
Stève Sainlaude
Mar 2019 304pp, 11 illustrations
9781469649948 Hardback £47.95 / €54.00
Civil War America
France’s involvement in the American Civil War was critical to its unfolding, but the details of the European power’s role remain little understood. Here, Steve Sainlaude offers the first comprehensive history of French diplomatic engagement with the Union and the Confederate States of America during the conflict.

ILLUSIONS OF EMANCIPATION
The Pursuit of Freedom and Equality in the Twilight of Slavery
Joseph P. Reidy
Apr 2019 480pp, 25 illustrations
9781469648361 Hardback £42.95 / €48.00
Littlefield History of the Civil War Era
In this sweeping reappraisal of slavery’s end during the Civil War era, Joseph P. Reidy employs the lenses of time, space, and individuals’ sense of personal and social belonging to understand how participants and witnesses coped with drastic change, its erratic pace, and its unforeseeable consequences.

THE LAST BATTLEGROUNDD
The Civil War Comes to North Carolina
Philip Gerard
Jan 2019 336pp, 27 illustrations
9781469649566 Hardback £29.95 / €34.00
To understand the long march of events in North Carolina from secession to surrender is to understand the entire Civil War. Philip Gerard presents the stories of the individuals who endured the war to capture the dreadful suspense of lives caught up in a conflict whose ending had not yet been written.

THE LOYAL REPUBLIC
Traitors, Slaves, and the Remaking of Citizenship in Civil War America
Erik Mathisen
Aug 2019 240pp
9781469654591 Paperback £26.95 / €30.00
Civil War America
Tells the story of how Americans attempted to define what it meant to be a citizen of the United States, at a moment of fracture in the republic’s history. As Erik Mathisen demonstrates, prior to the Civil War, American national citizenship amounted to little more than a vague bundle of rights. But during the conflict, citizenship was transformed.

RAISING THE WHITE FLAG
How Surrender Defined the American Civil War
David Silkenat
May 2019 376pp
9781469649726 Hardback £42.95 / €48.00
Civil War America
Provides the first comprehensive study of Civil War surrender, focusing on the conflicting social, political, and cultural meanings of the action. The experience of surrender sheds valuable light on the culture of honour, the experience of combat, and the laws of war.

REBEL RICHMOND
Life and Death in the Confederate Capital
Stephen V. Ash
Oct 2019 304pp, 16 illustrations
9781469650982 Hardback £37.50 / €42.00
Civil War America
In the spring of 1861, Richmond, Virginia, suddenly became the capital city, military headquarters, and industrial engine of a new nation fighting for its existence. In Rebel Richmond, Stephen Ash vividly evokes life in Richmond as war consumed the Confederate capital.
SEARCHING FOR BLACK CONFEDERATES
The Civil War’s Most Persistent Myth
Kevin M. Levin
Sep 2019 248pp, 18 illustrations
9781469653266 Hardback £32.50 / €36.00
Civil War America

More than 150 years after the Civil War, scores of websites, articles, and organisations repeat claims that anywhere up to 100,000 African Americans fought in the Confederate army. Kevin Levin explains that imprecise contemporary accounts and poorly understood primary-source material have helped fuel the rise of the black Confederate myth.

THE SECOND AMERICAN REVOLUTION
The Civil War-Era Struggle over Cuba and the Rebirth of the American Republic
Gregory P. Downs
Nov 2019 240pp
9781469652733 Hardback £29.95 / €34.00
The Steven and Janice Brose Lectures in the Civil War Era

Argues that we can see the US Civil War anew by understanding it as a revolution. More than a fight to preserve the Union and end slavery, the conflict refashioned a nation, in part by remaking its Constitution. More than a struggle of brother against brother, it entailed remaking an Atlantic world that centred in surprising ways on Cuba and Spain.

THE SECOND LINE OF DEFENSE
American Women and World War I
Lynn Dumenil
Feb 2019 360pp, 34 illustrations
9781469652061 Paperback £29.95 / €34.00

In tracing the rise of the modern idea of the American “new woman”, Lynn Dumenil examines World War I’s surprising impact on women and, in turn, women’s impact on the war. Telling the stories of a diverse group of women, Dumenil analyses both the roadblocks and opportunities they faced.

SEX AND THE CIVIL WAR
Soldiers, Pornography, and the Making of American Morality
Judith Giesberg
Feb 2019 152pp, 26 illustrations
9781469652078 Paperback £24.50 / €28.00
The Steven and Janice Brose Lectures in the Civil War Era

Civil War soldiers enjoyed unprecedented access to obscene materials of all sorts. With this book, Judith Giesberg has written the first serious study of the erotica and pornography that nineteenth-century American soldiers read and shared and links them to the postwar reaction to pornography and to debates about the future of sex and marriage.

WITH MALICE TOWARD SOME
Treason and Loyalty in the Civil War Era
William A. Blair
Feb 2019 432pp
9781469652092 Paperback £31.95 / €36.00
Littlefield History of the Civil War Era

Few issues created greater consensus among Civil War-era northerners than the belief that the secessionists had committed treason. But as William A. Blair shows in this engaging history, the way politicians, soldiers, and civilians dealt with disloyalty varied widely.

THE WOMEN’S FIGHT
The Civil War’s Battles for Home, Freedom, and Nation
Thavolia Glymph
Nov 2019 320pp, 10 illustrations
9781469653631 Hardback £37.50 / €42.00
Littlefield History of the Civil War Era

Historians of the Civil War often speak of “wars within a war” - the military fight, wartime struggles on the home front, and the political and moral battle to preserve the Union and end slavery. In this broadly conceived book, Thavolia Glymph provides a comprehensive new history of women’s roles and lives in the Civil War.
THE YANKEE PLAGUE
Escaped Union Prisoners and the Collapse of the Confederacy
Lorien Foote
Feb 2019 256pp, 10 illustrations
9781469652054 Paperback £29.95 / €34.00
Civil War America
In this fascinating look at Union soldiers’ flight for freedom in the last months of the Civil War, Lorien Foote reveals new connections between the collapse of the Confederate prison system, the large-scale escape of Union soldiers, and the full unravelling of the Confederate States of America.

Tells the story of a Radar Intercept Officer (RIO) in the back seat of the supersonic Phantom jet during the Vietnam War - a unique, tactical perspective of the “guy in back”, or GIB, absent from other published aviation accounts.

ARISTOCRACY OF ARMED TALENT
The Military Elite in Singapore
Samuel Ling Wei Chan
Apr 2019 528pp, 31 tables
9789813250079 Paperback £37.50 / €41.00
The story of the Singapore Armed Forces in the form of a collective portrait of its leaders. Given their prominence, and their portrayal by political leaders as an ‘aristocracy of talent’, it is no surprise that myths about the military leadership abound. This book takes on the myths directly, through 28 interviews with flag officers, and analysis of the history and structure of the Singapore Armed Forces.

Carl von Clausewitz
Translated & edited by Nicholas Murray & Christopher Pringle
2018 352pp
9780700626762 Paperback £21.50 / €24.00
Carl von Clausewitz (1780-1831) is best known for his masterpiece of military theory On War, yet that work formed only the first three of ten volumes of his published writings. Among these historical works, perhaps the most important is Napoleon’s 1796 Italian Campaign, which covers a crucial period in the French Revolutionary Wars.

RED PHOENIX RISING

9780700618286 Hardback £42.95 / €48.00
Modern War Studies
A groundbreaking account of the Soviet Air Force in World War II, the original version of this book, Red Phoenix, was hailed by the Washington Post as both ‘brilliant’ and ‘monumental’. That version has now been completely overhauled in the wake of an avalanche of declassified Russian archival sources, combat documents, and statistical information made available in the past three decades. The result, Red Phoenix Rising, is nothing less than definitive.

THE RUSSIAN ARMY IN THE GREAT WAR

David R. Stone
2015 368pp, 20 photos, 15 maps
9780700620951 Hardback £37.50 / €42.00
Modern War Studies
A full century later, our picture of World War I remains one of wholesale, pointless slaughter in the trenches of the Western front. Expanding our focus to the Eastern front fundamentally alters that picture. A thorough history of the Russian front during the First World War, this book corrects widespread misperceptions of the Russian Army and the war in the east even as it extends our understanding of the broader conflict.

Women have participated in war throughout history, but their experience in Russia during the First World War was truly exceptional. This book draws on archival research, including many first-person accounts, to examine the roots, motivations, and legacy of these women.
DEATH OF THE WEHRMACHT
The German Campaigns of 1942
Robert M. Citino
2007 432pp, 40 photos
9780700617913 Paperback £26.95 / €30.00
Modern War Studies

For Hitler and the German military, 1942 was a key turning point of World War II, as an overstretched Wehrmacht replaced brilliant victories and territorial gains with stalemates and strategic retreats. This major reevaluation of that crucial yearn shows that the German army’s emerging woes were rooted as much in its addiction to the ‘war of movement’ as they were in Hitler’s flawed management of the war.

9780700618262 Hardback £42.95 / €48.00
Modern War Studies

Throughout 1943, the German army, heirs to a military tradition that demanded and perfected relentless offensive operations, succumbed to the realities of its own overreach and the demands of twentieth-century industrialised warfare. In his new study, prizewinning author Robert Citino chronicles this weakening Wehrmacht, now fighting desperately on the defensive but still remarkably dangerous and lethal.

THE WEHRMACHT’S LAST STAND
The German Campaigns of 1944-1945
Robert M. Citino
2017 664pp
9780700624942 Hardback £29.95 / €42.00

By 1943, the war was lost, and most German officers knew it. Three quarters of a century later, the question persists: What kept the German army going in an increasingly hopeless situation? Where some historians have found explanations in the power of Hitler or the role of ideology, Robert M. Citino posits a more straightforward solution: the way of war cultivated by the Germans over the course of history.

GREED AND GRIEVANCE
Economic Agendas in Civil Wars
Edited by Mats Berdal & David Malone
2000 250pp
9781555878689 Paperback £24.95 / €29.00
A Project of the International Peace Academy

This volume identifies the economic and social factors underlying the perpetuation of civil wars, exploring as well the economic incentives and disincentives available to international actors seeking to restore peace to war-torn societies.

THE POLITICAL ECONOMY OF ARMED CONFLICT
Beyond Greed and Grievance
Edited by Karen Ballentine & Jake Sherman
2003 320pp
9781588261724 Paperback £27.50 / €31.00
A Project of the International Peace Academy

Globalization, suggest the authors of this collection, is creating new opportunities - some legal, some illicit - for armed factions to pursue their agendas in civil war. Within this context, they analyze the key dynamics of war economies and the challenges posed for conflict resolution and peace.

In this groundbreaking study, thirteen leading scholars explore the idea of transatlanticism through the lens of architecture and built spaces in the British Atlantic world from the seventeenth century to the mid-nineteenth century.

CAPITALISM & SLAVERY
Eric Williams
1994 307pp
9780807844885 Paperback £37.50 / €42.00

Slavery helped finance the Industrial Revolution in England. Plantation owners, shipbuilders, and merchants accumulated vast fortunes and expanded the reach of capitalism worldwide. Eric Williams advanced these ideas in Capitalism and Slavery, published in 1944. In a new introduction, Colin Palmer assesses the lasting impact of Williams’s groundbreaking work.

FREEDOM’S DEBT
The Royal African Company and the Politics of the Atlantic Slave Trade, 1672-1752
William A. Pettigrew
2016 272pp, 4 halftones, 4 figures, 4 tables
9781469629858 Paperback £29.95 / €34.00

In this comprehensive history of the rise and fall of the RAC, William A. Pettigrew grounds the transatlantic slave trade in politics, not economic forces, analysing the ideological arguments of the RAC and its opponents.
MORAL CAPITAL
Foundations of British Abolitionism
Christopher Leslie Brown
2006 496pp
9780807856987 Paperback £39.95 / €45.00
Published for the Omohundro Institute of Early American History and Culture, Williamsburg, Virginia
This book challenges scholarly arguments that locate the roots of abolitionism in economic determinism or bourgeois humanitarianism. It instead connects the shift from sentiment to action to changing views of empire and nation in Britain at that time.

HUMAN ENCUMBRANCES
Political Violence and the Great Irish Famine
David P. Nally
2011 376pp
9780268036089 Paperback £39.95 / €46.00
This is the first major work to apply the critical perspectives of famine theory and postcolonial studies to the causes and history of the Great Irish Famine. Combining an impressive range of archival sources Nally argues that land confiscations and plantation schemes paved the way for the reordering of Irish political, social, and economic space.

AN IRISH-SPEAKING ISLAND
State, Religion, Community, and the Linguistic Landscape in Ireland, 1770–1870
Nicholas M. Wolf
2014 416pp, 6 tables
9780299302740 Paperback £34.50 / €39.00
History of Ireland & the Irish Diaspora
After 1770, Ireland experienced the establishment of modern forms of Irish Catholicism, new engagement by the public with the political process, and the growth of the modern state. An Irish-Speaking Island investigates the role in these developments of the population who spoke Irish in their daily lives, and links the history of language contact and bilingualism with the broader history of Ireland in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries.

9780820354323 Hardcover £84.95 / €97.00

Race in the Atlantic World, 1700-1900

Shows how literary and visual depictions of black women helped to shape France’s post-revolutionary national identity, particularly in response to the trauma of the French defeat in the Haitian Revolution. The stories of these women reveal a blind spot about race in French national identity that persists in the postcolonial present.

9781496821089 Paperback £29.95 / €34.00
9781496820525 Hardback £88.95 / €100.00

After the death of Joseph Stalin, Soviet-era Russia experienced a flourishing artistic movement due to relaxed censorship and economic growth. In this atmosphere of freedom, Russia’s satirical magazine Krokodil became rejuvenated. John Etty explores Soviet graphic satire through Krokodil and its political cartoons.
Unusually manifold and complicated, the French revolution affords many teaching opportunities and challenges. This volume helps instructors seeking to connect developments today—terrorism, propaganda, extremism—with the events that began in 1789, contextualizing for students a world that seems always unmoored and in crisis.

The Battle of Crete was one of the most spectacular military campaigns of the twentieth century. Acclaimed historian Peter Monteath draws on records and recollections of Australian, New Zealand, German, and British forces — and local Cretans — to reveal the truth behind one of the most gruesome battles of World War II.

Brings together essays written by internationally recognised scholars in diverse national traditions to respond to the largely unaddressed question of Boccaccio’s impact on early modern literature and culture in Italy and Europe. This is the first comprehensive examination in English of Boccaccio’s impact on the Renaissance.

Argues that regnant notions of the Enlightenment, the Radical Enlightenment, and the multitude of regional and religious enlightenments all share an intellectual genealogy rooted in a broader revolutionary “culture of enlightening” that took shape from the waning of the sixteenth-century Reformations to the dawn of the Atlantic Revolutionary era.

To commemorate the 100th anniversary of the Russian Revolution, the University of Notre Dame Press is proud to publish Nobel Prize-winner Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn’s epic work March 1917, Node III, Book 1, of The Red Wheel.

The Red Wheel is Nobel Prize-winner Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn’s multivolume epic work about the Russian Revolution. He spent decades writing about just four of the most important periods, or “nodes”. This is the first time that the monumental March 1917—the third node—has been translated into English.

9781682260821 Paperback £29.95 / €34.00
9781682260814 Hardback £79.95 / €90.00

Exploring what it meant to accuse someone of eating people as well as how cannibalism rumours facilitated slavery and the rise of empires, To Feast on Us as Their Prey posits that it is impossible to separate histories of cannibalism from the role food and hunger have played in the colonisation efforts that shaped our modern world.
In presenting students with diverse issues and interests, the selections in Problems in U.S. History help readers think critically about the social, political, and cultural issues that have shaped America. The readings provide students exposure to the unique perspectives of various historians and the challenges of an evolving country.

Combining observations from the period with extensive interviews and documents (including a cache of files from the mezzanine of the old City Hall parking garage), James Crooks has written an urban history that will fascinate scholars of politics and governmental reform as well as residents of the First Coast city.

Leading scholars confront the longstanding theory that a liberal consensus shaped the United States after World War II. The essays draw on fresh research to examine how the consensus related to key policy areas, how it was viewed by different factions and groups, what its limitations were, and why it fell apart in the late 1960s.

Using fresh evidence and non-traditional ideas, the contributing authors reconsider the origins of the Mississippian culture of the North American Midwest and Southeast (A.D. 1000-1600). These essays provide the most comprehensive examination of early Mississippian culture in over thirty years.

Despite Florida’s current reputation as a swing state, there was a time when its Republicans were the underdogs against a Democratic powerhouse. This book tells the story of how the Republican Party of Florida became the influential force it is today.

A CURSE UPON THE NATION
Race, Freedom, and Extermination in America and the Atlantic World
Kay Wright Lewis
Jan 2019 292pp
9780820355474 Paperback £24.95 / €28.00
From the inception of slavery, both Europeans and Africans feared their extermination by the other in a race war. In the US, says Kay Wright Lewis, this ingrained dread nourished a preoccupation with slave rebellions and would later help fuel the Civil War, thwart Reconstruction, justify Jim Crow, and even inform civil rights movement strategy.

LOCKHEED, ATLANTA, AND THE STRUGGLE FOR RACIAL INTEGRATION
Randall L. Patton
Nov 2019 288pp, 10 b&w images
9780820355146 Hardback £50.95 / €58.00
Provides a rare, perhaps unique, account of African American struggle and management response, set within the context of the regional and national struggles for civil rights. The book describes the complex interplay of black protest, federal policy, and management action in a crucial space in the national economy and within the South, contributing to business history, policy history, labor history, and civil rights history.

THE POLITICS OF BLACK CITIZENSHIP
Free African Americans in the Mid-Atlantic Borderland, 1817–1863
Andrew K. Diemer
Jan 2019 272pp, 9 b&w images
9780820355504 Paperback £24.95 / €28.00
Race in the Atlantic World, 1700–1900
Considering Baltimore and Philadelphia as part of a larger, Mid-Atlantic borderland, this book shows that the antebellum effort to secure the rights of American citizenship was central to black politics - it was an effort to exploit the ambiguities of citizenship and negotiate the complex politics in which that concept was determined.

RECLAIMING KALKAUA
Nineteenth-Century Perspectives on a Hawaiian Sovereign
Tiffany Lani Ing
Oct 2019 304pp, 4 b&w illustrations
9780824881566 Paperback £29.95 / €34.00
9780824879983 Hardback £72.50 / €82.00
Examines the American, international, and Hawaiian representations of David La‘amea Kamanakapu Mahinulani Nalaihehuokalani Lumialani Kalākaua in English- and Hawaiian-language newspapers, books, travelogues, and other materials published during his reign as Hawai‘i’s mō‘ī (sovereign) from 1874 to 1891.
From the first, America has considered itself as uniquely lighting the right way for the world. But it is hard to reconcile this picture, the very image of American exceptionalism, with what America's Use of Terror shows us: that the United States has frequently resorted to acts of terror to solve its most challenging problems.

Despite being an affluent slave owner who believed social hierarchy was vital to America's survival, George Washington evolved in public memory during the nineteenth century into a man of the common people, the father of democracy. This memory, we learn in this study, was a deliberately constructed image, shaped and reshaped over time.

In this concise yet comprehensive history, Jared Ross Hardesty focuses on the individual stories of enslaved people in New England, bringing their experiences to life. He also explores larger issues such as the importance of slavery to the colonization of the region, and connections to Caribbean plantation societies.

The mythmakers of US expansion have expressed “manifest destiny” in many different ways - and so have its many discontents. A multidisciplinary study that delves into these contrasts and contradictions, Inventing Destiny offers a broad yet penetrating cultural history of nineteenth-century US territorial acquisition.

When hurricanes, earthquakes, wildfires, and other disasters strike, we count our losses, search for causes, commiserate with victims, and initiate relief efforts. Amply illustrated and expansively researched, Inventing Disaster explains the origins and development of this predictable, even ritualized, culture of calamity over three centuries.

JEFFERSON, MADISON, AND THE MAKING OF THE CONSTITUTION
Jeff Broadwater
Apr 2019 296pp
9781469651019 Hardback £32.50 / €36.00

Explores the evolution of the constitutional thought of these two seminal American figures, from the beginning of the American Revolution through the adoption of the Bill of Rights. Jeff Broadwater reveals how their collaboration - and their disagreements - influenced the full range of constitutional questions during this early period of the American republic.
Examines the connection between patriot discourse and long-standing debates - already central to the 1707 Act of Union - about the relationship among piety, moral philosophy, and political unionism.

This fascinating full biography of Reies Lopez Tijerina offers a fresh and unvarnished look at one of the most controversial, criticized, and misunderstood activists of the civil rights era. Lorena Oropeza's narrative captures the life of a man who changed our understanding of the place of Latinos in the fabric of American struggles for equality.

The first comprehensive examination of the nineteenth-century Ku Klux Klan since the 1970s, Ku-Klux pinpoints the group’s rise with startling acuity. Shedding new light on the ideas that motivated the Klan, Parsons book offers the definitive account of the rise of the Ku Klux Klan during Reconstruction.

Much is known about America’s history of Asian immigrant exclusion laws, but how did these laws end? Why did the US begin opening its borders to Asians after barring them for decades? Jane Hong argues that the transpacific movement to repeal Asian exclusion was part of US empire-building efforts and the rise of a new informal US empire in Asia.

Drawing on oral histories, letters, photographs, military records, and more, Christine Taitano DeLisle reveals how the entangled histories of CHamoru and white American women make us rethink the cultural politics of US imperialism and the emergence of new indigenous identities.

ESSAYS ON AMERICAN INDIAN AND MORMON HISTORY
P. Jane Hafen & Brenden W. Rensink
Jun 2019 440pp, 6 illustrations
9781607816904 Hardback £47.95 / €54.00
American Indians have long played a central role in Mormon history and its narratives. Their roles, however, have often been cast in support of traditional Mormon beliefs and as a reaffirmation of colonial discourses. This collection of essays explores the historical and cultural complexities of this narrative from a decolonizing perspective.

FRONTIER RELIGION
Mormons in America, 1857–1907
Konden Smith Hansen
Jun 2019 392pp, 12 illustrations
9781607816881 Hardback £47.95 / €54.00
Endeavouring to understand the sway of the frontier on religion in the US, this book follows Mormon-American conflicts, from the Utah War and the antipolygamy crusades to the Reed Smoot hearings. The story of Mormonism’s move toward American acceptability represents a larger story of the US’s transition toward modernity and religious pluralism.

AMERICAN ABOLITIONISM
Its Direct Political Impact from Colonial Times into Reconstruction
Stanley Harrold
May 2019 296pp, 15 b&w illustrations
9780813942292 Hardback £42.50 / €48.00
A Nation Divided: Studies in the Civil War Era
Provides a systematic examination of the American abolition movement’s direct impacts on antislavery politics from colonial times to the Civil War and after. Stanley Harrold focuses on abolitionists’ political tactics - petitioning, lobbying, establishing bonds with sympathetic politicians - and on their disruptions of slavery itself.
BECOMING MEN OF SOME CONSEQUENCE
Youth and Military Service in the Revolutionary War
John A. Ruddiman
May 2018 288pp
9780813941936 Paperback £26.95 / €30.00
Jeffersonian America
Young Continental soldiers carried a heavy burden in the American Revolution. Their experiences of coming of age during the upheavals of war provide a novel perspective on the era. This book recovers young soldiers’ perspectives and stories, revealing how revolutionary political ideology intertwined with rational calculation and youthful ambition.

9780813942100 Paperback £31.95 / €36.00
Jeffersonian America
Takes us literally to the soil where the Jamestown colony began, unearthing footprints of a series of structures, beginning with the James Fort, to reveal fascinating evidence of the lives and deaths of the first settlers, of their endeavours and struggles, and new insight into their relationships with the Virginia Indians.

JEFFERSONIANS IN POWER
The Rhetoric of Opposition Meets the Realities of Governing
Edited by Joanne B. Freeman & Johann N. Neem
Sep 2018 320pp
9780813943053 Hardback £42.50 / €48.00
Jeffersonian America
Explores the logic and logistics of Jeffersonian statesmanship. Focusing on Jeffersonian Republican statecraft in action, Jeffersonians in Power maps the meeting place of ideology and policy as Jeffersonians shifted from being an oppositional party to exercising power as the ruling coalition.

THE ONLY UNAVOIDABLE SUBJECT OF REGRET
George Washington, Slavery, and the Enslaved Community at Mount Vernon
Mary V. Thompson
May 2019 520pp, 20 b&w illustrations, 12 tables
9780813941844 Hardback £31.95 / €36.00
Jeffersonian America
George Washington’s life has been scrutinized by historians over the past three centuries, but the day-to-day lives of Mount Vernon’s enslaved workers have been largely left out of the story. Drawing on years of research in a wide range of sources, Mary Thompson offers the first comprehensive account of those who served in bondage at Mount Vernon.

THE PAPERS OF GEORGE WASHINGTON
5 July-27 August 1780
George Washington
Edited by Benjamin L. Huggins
Dec 2019 752pp
9780813943039 Hardback £101.00 / €114.00
Jeffersonian America
Three themes dominate George Washington’s correspondence in this volume of the Revolutionary War Series: the arrival of a French expeditionary army and navy, the need to prepare the Continental army for a joint Franco-American offensive on New York City, and the cultivation of Washington’s relationship with Lieutenant General Rochambeau.

PRESERVING THE WHITE MAN’S REPUBLIC
Jacksonian Democracy, Race, and the Transformation of American Conservatism
Joshua A. Lynn
May 2019 264pp
9780813942506 Hardback £42.50 / €48.00
Jeffersonian America
Responding to fears of African American and female political agency, this book shows how Democrats in the late 1840s and 1850s reinvented themselves as “conservatives” and repurposed Jacksonian Democracy as a tool for local majorities of white men to police racial and gender boundaries by democratically withholding rights.

History and Statecraft
Edited by Hal Brands & Jeremi Suri
2015 300pp
97808157272125 Paperback £27.50 / €31.00
History, with its insights, analogies, and narratives, is central to the ways that the US interacts with the world. Historians and policymakers, however, rarely engage one another as effectively or fruitfully as they might. This book bridges that divide, bringing together leading scholars and policymakers to address the essential questions surrounding the history-policy relationship.

Gerald E. Poyo
Jan 2019 318pp, 8 b&w photos
9780813064260 Paperback £26.95 / €30.00
Provides a comprehensive account of how the author’s great-great-grandfather spurred the working-class community of Key West to become critical actors in the struggle for Cuban independence. The book reveals the depth of Cuba’s ties to Florida; the experience of Cubans in the American South; and intrigues involving Spain, Cuba, and the US.

THE GUERRILLA LEGACY OF THE CUBAN REVOLUTION
Anna Clayfield
Apr 2019 224pp, 8 b&w illustrations
9781683400899 Hardback £89.95 / €102.00
Challenges contemporary Western views on the militarization of Cuba. Anna Clayfield argues that, while the pervasiveness of armed forces in revolutionary Cuba is hard to refute, it is the guerrilla legacy, ethos, and image – guerrillerismo - that has helped the Cuban revolutionary project survive.
THE INVENTION OF THE BEAUTIFUL GAME
Football and the Making of Modern Brazil
Gregg Bocketti
Jan 2019 320pp, 20 b&w photos
9780813064277 Paperback £28.95 / €33.00
In this cross-cutting cultural history, Gregg Bocketti traces the origins of football in Brazil from its elitist, Eurocentric identity as “foot-ball” at the end of the nineteenth century to its subsequent mythologization as the specifically Brazilian “futebol,” o jogo bonito (the beautiful game).

ESCAPE FROM CUBA
Personal Accounts of Those Who Fled Castro’s Regime
Edited by Eloy L. Nuñez & Ernest G. Vendrell
Oct 2019 190pp, 115 photos
9781476676043 Paperback £44.95 / €49.00
In 1959, Fidel Castro assumed power in Cuba after overthrowing the government of Fulgencio Batista. In response, thousands of Cubans fled the island, mostly to the United States. This book tells the stories of these Cubans in exile, all of whom overcame great obstacles to escape the Castro regime.
Throughout Cuban history, the mulata features prominently in visual and performative culture. Tracing the figure through historical eras, Alison Fraunhar looks at the representation and performance in both elite and popular culture. She also tracks how characteristics associated with these women have accrued across the Atlantic world.

Throughout the colonial period the Spanish crown made numerous unsuccessful attempts to conquer Araucanía, Chile’s southern borderlands region. Contested Nation argues that with Chilean independence, Araucanía - because of its status as a separate nation-state - became essential to the territorial integrity of the new Chilean Republic.

Examines the history, cultural evolution, and survival of the Genízaro people. Contributors cover topics including ethnogenesis, slavery, settlements, poetics, religion, gender, family history, and mestizo genetics.
THE ORIGINS OF MACHO
Men and Masculinity in Colonial Mexico
Sonya Lipsett-Rivera
Jun 2019 288pp

9780826360397 Hardback £101.00 / €114.00
Diálogos Series
Basing the study of colonial Mexican masculinity on the experiences of mainstream men, Lipsett-Rivera traces the genesis of the Mexican macho by looking at daily interactions between Mexican men in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries. In doing so she establishes an important foundation for gender studies in Mexico and Latin America.

PROTESTANTISM AND STATE FORMATION IN POST-REVOLUTIONARY OAXACA
Kathleen M. McIntyre
Jun 2019 288pp
9780826360243 Hardback £69.50 / €78.00
Traces conflicts stemming from Protestant conversion in southern Mexico and demonstrates that both Protestants and Catholics deployed cultural identity as self-defence in clashes over power and authority. This is an important addition to the literature on transnational religious movements, gender, and indigenous identity in Latin America.

VICTORY ON EARTH OR IN HEAVEN
Mexico’s Religionero Rebellion
Brian A. Stauffer
Dec 2019 440pp, 15 illustrations
9780826361271 Hardback £79.95 / €90.00
This work reconstructs the history of Mexico’s forgotten “Religionero” rebellion of 1873-1877, an armed Catholic challenge to the government of Sebastián Lerdo de Tejada.

THE WAR HAS BROUGHT PEACE TO MEXICO
World War II and the Consolidation of the Post-Revolutionary State
Halbert Jones
Mar 2019 312pp
9780826351319 Paperback £37.50 / €42.00
Although the battlefields of World War II lay thousands of miles from Mexico, the conflict had an influence on the country’s political development. Though the war years in Mexico have attracted less attention than other periods, this book shows how the crisis of the early 1940s played a part in the consolidation of the post-revolutionary regime.

COLONIAL LOYALTIES
Celebrating the Spanish Monarchy in Eighteenth-Century Lima
María Soledad Barbón
Oct 2019 264pp, 10 illustrations
9780268106454 Hardback £58.95 / €66.00
Provides a study of how Lima’s residents engaged in civic festivities in the eighteenth century. Scholarship on festive culture in Latin America has largely centred on “fiestas” as a medium through which the colonizing Iberians naturalized their power. María Soledad Barbón contends that this perspective addresses only one side of the equation.

Jews and Sex Work in Golden Age Argentina
Mir Yarfitz
Apr 2019 208pp, 14 illustrations
9780813598154 Hardback £50.95 / €58.00

Investigates the period from the 1890s until the 1930s, when prostitution was legal in Argentina. At the same time, pogroms and anti-Semitic discrimination left thousands of Eastern European Jewish people displaced. For many Jewish women, participation in prostitution was one few ways they could escape the limited options in their home countries.

Revolutionaries, Radicals, and Repression During the Global Sixties and Subversive Seventies
Edited by Jaime M. Pensado & Enrique C. Ochoa
2018 360pp
9780816538423 Paperback £37.50 / €42.00

Examines the revolutionary organizing and state repression that characterized Mexico during the 1960s and 1970s. The massacre of students in Mexico City in October 1968 is often considered the defining moment of this period. The authors in this volume challenge the centrality of that moment by looking at the broader story of struggle and repression across Mexico during this time.

9781558760516 Paperback £19.95 / €23.00
Robert Wedderburn was one of the first promoters of black power by revolutionary force, if necessary. His publications had an enormous impact in his time. His autobiography is a vital indictment of an execrable system.

MASTERY, TYRANNY, AND DESIRE
Thomas Thistlewood and His Slaves in the Anglo-Jamaican World
Trevor Burnard
2004 336pp
9780807855256 Paperback £39.95 / €45.00
Eighteenth-century Jamaica, Britain’s largest and most valuable slave-owning colony, relied on a brutal system of slave management to maintain its social order. Trevor Burnard provides unparalleled insight into Jamaica’s vibrant but harsh African and European cultures with a comprehensive examination of the diary of plantation owner Thistlewood.

CARIBBEAN WARS UNTOLD
A Salute to the British West Indies
Humphrey Metzgen & John Graham
2007 277pp
9789766402037 Paperback £29.95 / €33.00
Presents the compelling story of the Caribbean during nearly five centuries of warfare, from the time of Columbus to the present decade. It demonstrates how West Indians consistently rallied to Britain’s side in its many years of peril, volunteered for service in its armed forces, or more recently also for work in its wartime factories and forests.
The Great War is still seen as a mostly European war, while the Middle Eastern theatre is, at best, considered a sideshow written from the western perspective. This book fills a gap in the literature by giving an insight through annotated translations from Ottoman memoirs of actors who witnessed the last few years of Turkish presence in the Arab lands.

STUDYING SINGAPORE BEFORE 1800
Edited by Kwa Chong Guan & Peter Borschberg
Mar 2019 600pp
9789814722742 Paperback £46.50 / €51.00
Historians rely on Singapore’s strategic position to explain its great success as a royal trading port in the 14th century, and as a British colony after 1819. What, then, accounts for the many centuries when it seemed not to thrive? This volume collects studies about Singapore before 1800, bringing together different efforts across the 20th century at reconstructing Singapore’s ‘missing years’.
TALES OF SOUTHEAST ASIA’S JAZZ AGE

THE SEVENTIES
The Personal, the Political and the Making of Modern Australia
Michelle Arrow
Mar 2019 288pp
9781742234700 Paperback £21.95 / €26.00
The seventies was the decade that shaped modern Australia. It was the decade of ‘It’s Time’, stagflation and the Dismissal, a tumultuous period of economic and political upheaval, and the era when the personal became political and social movements tore down the boundary between public and private life. In a lively and engaging style, Michelle Arrow has written a new history of this transformative decade.

THE SNOWY

WORLD WAR NOIR
Sydney’s Unpatriotic War
Michael Duffy & Nick Hordern
Apr 2019 320pp
9781742236049 Paperback £19.95 / €24.00
It seems that not even world war could stop crime in Sydney. In fact, this book confirms that war and crime - in the form of sex, drugs, alcohol, racketeering and other illicit activities - go hand in hand. World War Noir provides an alternative history of Sydney during World War II that depicts a city far less patriotic, and far more hell bent on pleasure, than ever shown before.

Also available:

FORGOTTEN WAR
Henry Reynolds
2013 288pp
9781742233925 Paperback £16.95 / €20.00
Continues the story told in Henry Reynolds’ The Other Side of the Frontier, which argued that the settlement of Australia had a high level of violence and conflict that is ignored.

WHAT’S WRONG WITH ANZAC?
The Militarisation of Australian History
Marilyn Lake & Henry Reynolds
2010 192pp
9781742231518 Paperback £16.95 / €20.00
This informative narrative claims that ANZAC has become a conservative political force in Australia and questions whether ANZAC’s renowned foreign battles were worth all of the bloodshed. Daring, intelligent, and thought-provoking, this is a must-read for those interested in Australian or military history.
